

HIGHLIGHTS

2 - 15 OCTOBER

EXHIBITION

Christoffel & Kate Bisschop

TUESDAY - SUNDAY

Delve into the lives of Leeuwarden-born artist Christoffel Bisschop and his English wife Kate Bisschop-Swift. Everything about these forgotten painters is covered: from their personal lives and art to sources of inspiration as diverse as antique objects, the past and colourful Hindeloopen.

ART IN THE CITY

125 jaar Escher (last chance)

DAILY

This year marks exactly 125 years since the birth of one of Leeuwarden's most famous residents: Maurits Cornelis Escher. The anniversary will be celebrated in the city, including a route along 3D artworks by Leon Keer and other artists. The artworks can be admired until the 21st of October.

MUSICAL

De Tocht

WEDNESDAY - SUNDAY

The forecast is icy good and that can only mean one thing; it sil wêze! (It will be!) In the new musical extravaganza De Tocht, five friends must keep their promise - if the tour comes around one more time, they'll skate it and complete it together. But it turns out there is more at stake than just getting the cross.

ARCHITECTURE

Museumhuis van Eysinga

WEDNESDAY - SUNDAY

A stately mansion built by one of the most significant men of the eighteenth century: you naturally expect splendour there. But are you also going to take a look at the servants' quarters? And why was the house empty for a while? Meet the Van Eysinga family, ring the bell, be surprised and take a seat at the gaming table.
