ART IN THE CITY

125 years of Escher

DAILY

This year marks exactly 125 years since one of the most famous residents of Leeuwarden was born: Maurits Cornelius Escher. The iconic graphic artist grew up in the city palace where the Princessehof Ceramic Museum is now located. The city is commemorating this anniversary, including a route taking you past 3D artworks by Leon Keer and other artists.

MUSICAL

De Tocht

STARTING 1 OCTOBER

In the Dutch-language musical spectacle De Tocht, five friends must keep their promise - if the trip comes around one more time, they will ride it out together. But it turns out there is more at stake than just getting the cross. This musical tells a story of suffering, passion, fraternization and making choices. With impressive music and the chillingly beautiful scenery of the Frisian eleven cities.
