16 - 29 OCTOBER

EXHIBITION

Spreeuwendans

DAILY

Marvel at this wondrous exhibition, in which photographer Erik Hijweege has collected his finest photographs of flocks of starlings hovering over the Frisian landscape. The birds form dynamic works of art, constantly changing shape: from a whale to a duck to a seal. At the same time, each starling is portrayed.

ZOO

Dinoweken

DAILY

Whoa, what are these dinosaurs doing in Leeuwarden? Do you dare to pay them a visit? Go on an adventurous voyage of discovery at AquaZoo and before you know it, you'll not only come face to face with tigers, polar bears and crocodiles, but also flying, swimming and roaring dinosaurs!

MUSICAL

De Tocht

WEDNESDAY - SUNDAY

The forecast is icy good and that can only mean one thing: it sil wêze! (It will be!) In the new musical extravaganza De Tocht, five friends must keep their promise - if the tour comes around one more time, they'll skate it and complete it together. But it turns out there is more at stake than just getting the check.

EVENT

De Nacht van de Nacht

28 OCTOBER

De Nacht van de Nacht (The Night of the Night) puts the dark in the spotlight! Many companies and institutions will leave the lights off in Leeuwarden on this night. During De Nacht van de Nacht, you can climb the Oldehove for a unique view of the city in the dark. Furthermore, the HCL organises special evening city walks and you can sail through the dark canals on a boat.

EXHIBITION

Feest!

TUESDAY - SUNDAY

With the exhibition: Feest!, the Prinsessehof shows how festivities are celebrated throughout the Netherlands; from Passover and Ketikoti to Carnival and Divali. The differences between the celebrations are great, but food, drink and tableware almost always play a central role, and so do ceramics. Only a few weeks to go!

WALK

Miniature People Leeuwarden

DAILY

Meet the smallest inhabitants of the city! At more than sixty locations in the city centre of Leeuwarden, you will discover the minuscule people in unexpected places. Rock climbers clamber up City Hall, homeless people sleep under a marble surround, and a construction worker with a jackhammer makes a huge crack in the ground.
