Triceratops in Leeuwarden

POP-UP MUSEUM

Have you ever seen a dinosaur in prison? This summer in Leeuwarden, you will come across a very unique inmate at Blokhuispoort: a Triceratops! Naturalis Museum presents this unique find from America in a special pop-up museum, where you'll stand eye-to-eye with this skeleton. Continue your route in dbieb where you can spot dinosaurs and dig up bones, among other things.

Museumhuis van Eysinga

INTERACTIVE MUSEUM

A stately mansion built by one of the most significant families of the eighteenth century: you naturally expect splendour there. But would you also like to take a peek at the servants' quarters? And why was the house empty for a while? Meet the Van Eysinga family, ring the bell, be surprised and take a seat at the gaming table.
